

Master's Thesis at ISARA Lyon

The master thesis will be jointly supervised by supervisors from ISARA and your home university. You might be physically located at the ISARA during the entire thesis work, but often the master is carried out at the place of a national or international organisation or university. Normally a third party such as a public or private research organisation, or an industry partner is involved in the thesis work.